The Gentry Re-Union. The Gentry re-union at Crab Orchard Springs brought more people to cousin, Miss Maude Best, at Stanford the famous "Saratoga of the South" Saturday and from there they wil. go than has been gathered there at any to Jellico to visit their aunt, Miss time for many years. A fair estimate places the number last week at six hundred Gentrys and the regular from Santiago to Long Island, near guests. Every available room was occupied and the three immense buildings taxed to their utmost. Mine Host, Hofmann is entitled to great praise for the splendid manner in which he entertained the crowd and the resolutions published below show how the people appreciated his efforts. The Gentry's have been returning home all this week and there is now ample Messrs. Herbert Kinnaird, Fred room at the springs to accommodate Frisbie, Frank Marksbury, Owen Shu- all who desire to make a visit to the lovely resort. The Gentry resolutions
